Dear Faithful Christian Friends,

Greetings in our blessed Savior's name!

I hope this letter finds you well! The Pines' children are currently finishing up term two with their schooling and are in the midst of their mid-year assessments. This period can be particularly stressful for some of them, as they strive to perform well and secure better chances of passing the school year. Following the assessments, the children will enjoy a mid-year school break for three to four weeks. While this break offers them a much-needed respite from academic pressures, it also presents new challenges. The mamas will find themselves busier than usual, and the children might experience boredom. To address this, we have planned some work opportunities and community service activities for them to keep them engaged and productive. Although it's a shift from our regular routine, we believe it will be a meaningful and rewarding time for everyone involved.

In addition, the staff at the Pines is preparing for many visitors. These visits are always enriching for our community, and we ask for your prayers for the safe and impactful comings and goings of our guests.

The Pines' farm continues to grow! We recently added two piglets to our animal family, joining four goats, including three pregnant females, a dozen chickens, and now the piglets. The children are thoroughly enjoying their time with the animals and are learning invaluable lessons about responsibility and the joys of raising them.

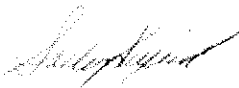

I am so excited that one of our young men from The Pines, Lovemore will be coming to visit me in Colorado. He is presently studying at Faith Baptist Bible College in Iowa. Please pray for him as he travels over the 4th of July holiday to visit.

Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks: this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

I cannot thank you enough for partnering with us in this ministry and blessing our lives and the lives of our children at The Pines with your Compassionate giving and continual prayers.

Because of Him,

Many blessings,

Sally Seefried
